THOUSAND OAKS Detoxification Treatment

La Ventana's JCAHO accredited 6-bed medically managed, sub-acute residential detoxification facility is the first step in helping an individual manage the process of withdrawal from alcohol and/or drugs. Our detox team has over 200 years of collective recovery and detox experience: we understand the trauma of the cycle of addiction and meet clients where they are with empathy and respect. We provide superior medical care, safety, comfort, and loving individualized attention. Located in the hills of Thousand Oaks, California, the ranch style home provides a peaceful environment and the extensively trained staff provides a safe and nurturing home. Our medical doctors specialize in detoxification specifically and will prescribe appropriate medications to ensure a safe and comfortable experience. The La Ventana staff provide 24-hour monitoring and support during this important first stage of recovery.
